

SHIH CHIEN UNIVERSITY

Shih Chien University has roots that go back to the founding of Shih Chien College of Home Economics in 1958. Over the years, the institution evolved from a junior college to a bachelor's degree granting institution and was renamed Shih Chien College of Design and Management in 1991. In 1997, the institution was promoted to university status. Today, the University is made up of 2 campuses and 5 colleges, with approximately 18,000 students and 700 faculty and staff. It is a learning community with friendly atmosphere and artistic environment.

The University has two campuses: Taipei Campus and the Kaohsiung Campus. The Taipei Campus, located in the northern part of Taiwan, is a 100-hectare campus with approximately 10,000 students and 440 faculty and staff. The Kaohsiung Campus, located in the southern part of Taiwan, is situated on 65 hectares of land and has more than 8,000 students and 260 faculty and staff.
