

countryside of Taiwan, where his family are all farmers. He loves to read books and water lelevision shows from overseas His favorite show is Friends because he is easy to make friends. He is especially at ease to talk with people from all around the world when they visit Taiwan and loves to show them the best places to eat and Taiwan's most deficious fruits!

Gogo was raised in Genova, Italy, she speaks Italian, Spanish, German, Russian, and of course English. Traveling and experiencing the world is what Lady Gogo loves to do. Asia is her latest desilination, where she has learned a new language and discovered new things around every corner. Trying everything she can, Lady Gogo loves to explore and have fun.

